

Julie Buffalohead

Julie Buffalohead is an Indigenous American artist based in Minnesota. Many of her works feature animals dressed and behaving as humans. She uses her art to comment on her own life experiences, and the experiences of other Indigenous Americans.

Draw your favorite animal behaving like a person on the back!

“Indifferent”
2016. Ink and acrylic on paper,
located at Yale University art gallery.